BIO

Nikita is an expert in attracting talent to solve business problems.

Holding a Bachelor's degree in Business and majoring in Human Resources Management from UTS, Nikita has more than 10 years of experience in Sales, Human Resources and Recruitment.

Nikita has worked for large multinational firms as well as for well-known Australian brands within the Corporate Services divisions. She supports Line Managers across Customer Service, Administration, Supply Chain/Logistics and transactional Finance & Accounting functions.

Nikita's experience has not only highlighted the importance of managing the recruitment process well by taking the time to understand business needs, but also the importance of asking all the right questions at the beginning of the process to better manage expectations for her Clients and Candidates.

Nikita's passion is to deliver high quality experiences to all her stakeholders, mixed with the utmost professionalism, honesty and friendliness.
