BIO

Nidhi Gupta is an executive search and research professional with a deep understanding of the APAC market. Specialising in market research, mapping, analysis, and the identification of executive talent, Nidhi understands that, when researching at the senior executive level, a tailored and innovative approach is essential to delivering an outstanding candidate list to the client.

With over 14 years' experience spanning across Australia, Asia and the US, Nidhi specialises in the technology, industrial, mining, consumer and professional services sectors, focusing on CFO, CIO, CMO, Commercial Directors, GMs, MDs and board appointments. Nidhi's career to date encompasses some of the world's biggest search firms and in her role at Reo Group Executive Search this experience is a powerful combination with Reo's highly personalised approach.

Having serviced a broad range of sectors, regions and roles, Nidhi has exceptional stakeholder management skills, easily adapting her style and approach to optimise results and ensure delivery on mandates to the highest standard. Utilising modern search techniques to find highly valuable executives and a passion for assisting clients to build diverse teams, Nidhi's focus and execution is underpinned by a desire to deliver excellence for her clients.
