BIO

Specialising specifically in Business Services and Administration, Tiana is an integral member of the Corporate Services division at Reo Group. In her role as Talent Partner, Tiana is an expert at sourcing candidates who meet the specific criteria of any given role.

Graduating with a Bachelor of Psychology, and an additional Diploma of Life Coaching, has provided the perfect foundation for Tiana to support and coach her candidates on their career path and work with her clients on finding the optimal solution to address their challenges and meet their goals.

Tiana's mantra is “people lead people”. Her purpose ultimately is to elevate human potential by connecting like-minded individuals together to provide opportunity for professional and personal development. Using Reo Group's signature evidence-based recruitment methods, Tiana fulfils this purpose by removing bias from the selection process and basing the creation of her shortlists on evidence and fact.

If you need a partner to source the right talent for your team and engage them with your brand and vision, Tiana is exceptionally well-placed to assist, with her outstanding customer service skills smoothing the hiring process and instilling confidence in what can be a challenging job market.
