BIO

Raghav Mehta is a Co-Founding Director and Head of Search Practice for the fast-growing brand Reo Group. His mission is to help executives create maximum impact in their roles through exceptional talent selection and acquisition.

After graduating from Sydney University with a Commercial Law and Accounting major, Raghav followed his curiosity to better understand corporate success and started his career with Global Consulting giant Deloitte where he also qualified as a Chartered Accountant. He quickly realised that it was the outstanding people who determined organisational success and that led him to a very successful career in recruitment consulting.

Over the last 10 years, Raghav has placed 250+ senior-level executives and finance professionals for premier ASX 200, S&P 500 companies, and PE-backed investments.

He has taken the lessons learned from the hiring practices from over 500 organizations and consolidated them into actionable insights for his clients. He creates a competitive advantage for his CFO clients by securing exceptional talent.

Raghav empowers his clients to create freedom within their day to spend less time managing people problems and more time creating strategic value and impact for their organisations. As a result, his clients have become well known and trusted advisors to CEOs.
