BIO

Emilia is a dedicated recruiter with experience placing top talent across across NFPs, professional and financial services, education, insurance, law firms, and more.

With a firm belief that recruitment should be transparent and focused on long-term success, Emilia prioritises both skills and cultural fit to ensure the right match for candidates and businesses alike. She advocates for an inclusive and efficient hiring process built on honest communication, creating a positive experience that drives career growth and business success.

She takes a proactive approach to expanding her market knowledge, engaging in industry events, hosting round tables, and sharing her in-depth market knowledge with her network on LinkedIn.

Prior to her career in recruitment, Emilia managed multinational teams in hospitality while completing her MBA, giving her a deep understanding of leadership, adaptability, and people management.

Outside of work, Emilia is an avid baker. She also enjoys weekends spent at the beach, pilates classes, and discovering the best new cafés and restaurants.
