BIO

Jonathan is a proven leader in Financial Services Search & Selection with over 15 years' experience placing talent and leading teams across London and Australia. His mission is to create positive change in an evolving industry through helping the best people find the best seats and maximising capability development in those around him. He specialises in recruitment across General Insurance, Corporate Insurance, and Specialty Insurance.

Jonathan began his professional career in Insurance, working first for a Global Broker and then a Lloyd's & London Market Insurer focused on Marine, Energy and Liability products. Moving to Australia in 2013, Jonathan has built and led highly successful search teams across the Insurance, Wealth, Superannuation and Banking sectors while personally delivering on critical mandates.

Jonathan joined Reo Group in 2021 and founded the Financial Services & Insurance division, which has since placed candidates across many reputable Australian and global organisations.

Jonathan is still actively involved in the Insurance sector and maintains his passion for the industry today. He is the author of the Australian Insurance Digest, a long-standing publication that shares the latest moves, appointments, and statistics in the insurance industry across Australia.

Jonathan holds a Masters in Economics, is qualified through the Chartered Insurance Institute in London and holds multiple qualifications in talent assessment.

Outside of work he is an avid Arsenal FC fan and is passionate about music, being the son of a Jazz Musician and Scottish Folk singer.
