

MONICA CASAMENTO

SENIOR BUSINESS MANAGER

“TODAY IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO BUILD THE TOMORROW YOU WANT”

BIO

Monica is a highly experienced sales and business development professional, focused on establishing and nurturing long-term relationships and delivering high quality outcomes for our customers. Her natural communication skills and her meticulous attention to detail position Monica perfectly to quickly understand the challenges of the customer and articulate how Reo Group can deliver support in addressing those concerns.

Acting as a connection point for new and growing client accounts across both Reo Group and Reo Group Executive Search, Monica partners with Senior HR and Talent stakeholders to bring the Reo method to life, aligning it to the unique challenges of the client. Delivering tailored support and advice on EVP, talent acquisition and retention, and succession planning, she adds significant value to any client partnership.

Specialising in Finance, Technology and Human Resources, Monica ensures that talent acquisition professionals and hiring managers across those disciplines are connected to the search partner best placed to deliver to their current needs whilst remaining a constant point of contact with her clients as she oversees delivery.

Building rapport and connecting with clients on a deeper level has been Monica’s driving power throughout her tenured career. From a prize-winning Gemmologist to stellar progression in the recruitment industry, Monica has translated a scientific approach and excellence in relationship building to great effect in her role at Reo Group. Her meticulous and methodical approach to her work, continually drives strong results for her customers and sets the bar exceptionally high across the industry.
