“MATCHING
PEOPLE WITH PURPOSE”

BIO

Aidan is a specialist recruiter within the Insurance sector, with a particular focus on the Workers Compensation and Personal Injury markets. He partners with insurers, brokerages, injury management providers and related organisations to deliver high-quality talent across Claims, Underwriting, Distribution, and Injury Management. His background includes experience in the London property and technology sectors, and he has spent the past two years recruiting in Sydney's healthcare market, giving him a strong understanding of how people, systems and industries intersect.

Aidan's approach to recruitment is grounded in professionalism, integrity and a deep commitment to understanding the unique needs of every stakeholder. He believes effective recruitment goes beyond simply filling a role, it requires active listening, genuine partnership and an ability to match not just capability, but character. Known for his thoughtful and consultative style, Aidan prides himself on creating long-term, sustainable outcomes for both clients and candidates.

Aidan is focused on understanding the evolving needs of Workers Compensation and Personal Injury organisations and developing relationships that allow him to provide insightful, value-driven guidance for both clients and candidates.
